★ Meet Our Week!

Week 2 · Medium Stamina

★ Daily Deck

I Will...

- I will find clue words that tell what kind of thinking a prompt needs.
- I will decide whether a prompt asks for reasons or relationships.
- I will explain how the problems and solutions in the two texts connect.
- I will write a thesis (central idea) that matches the exact prompt.
- I will plan reasons, evidence, explanation, and significance for my ECR.

I Can...

- I can use a clue word to name the thinking type.
- I can tell the difference between importance and relationship.
- I can write a thesis (central idea) with because or by when it fits the prompt.
- I can explain how evidence supports my thesis (central idea).

With Your Partner

Task Card

Explain the importance of laws in maintaining fairness in the poem.

Answer

REASONS

What clue words helped you identify relationships?

What makes a prompt ask for reasons instead of connections?

How does conflict help you understand BOTH types?

Connection means I compare ideas.

Importance means I give reasons.

Student Directions: “Together, reread selected cards and explain why their clue words belong in each column.”

Citizenship Connection

Good Citizens · Our Community & Country

★ Fair rules and shared knowledge

Communities write laws so everyone is treated fairly, and scientists share discoveries so everyone can stay healthy. Both are ways people take care of one another.

Reflect & Discuss

How do fair rules and shared knowledge help a community keep people safe?

Let's Look at an Answer!

Prompt: Describe the connection between arguments in "Why We Need Laws" and the need for laws in the poem.

LOW

Laws are good.

What Is Working: Named the topic (laws) and attempted a complete sentence.

What Needs Improvement: No clue-word thinking, no reason, and no connection to fairness. It does not answer why laws matter.

Let's Look at Another Answer!

Prompt: Describe the connection between arguments in "Why We Need Laws" and the need for laws in the poem.

MEDIUM

Laws are important because they help people.

What Is Working: Used the clue word importance and gave a reason with "because."

What Needs Improvement: The reason is general. It does not name fairness or the specific idea from the poem.

Our Strongest Answer!

Prompt: Describe the connection between arguments in "Why We Need Laws" and the need for laws in the poem.

HIGH

Laws are important for maintaining fairness because they stop people from taking more than others and help the community treat people equally.

What Is Working: It names the topic, gives reasons, and answers why laws matter.
