How to Use This Folder

★ USE THIS FIRST: Step 1, Find It and Prove It. For an unexpected absence, the substitute starts with Step 1. Its passage (Module 1, “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraphs 1 and 2) has already been taught, so it is safe on any day of Cluster 8. Teacher: to designate a different lesson, write it here: Step ____ Module ____ Initials ____

Choose a lesson

These are five choices, not a five-step sequence. Use a lesson only when its module has already been taught. Taking them in numerical order is also safe because each Step uses a passage from the same or an earlier module.

ID	Lesson	Practice	Eligible module and approved passage	Page
Step 1 ★	Find It and Prove It	3.7B, 3.7C	Module 1: “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraphs 1 and 2	5
Step 2	Say It in Your Own Words	3.7D	Module 1: “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraph 1	16
Step 3	Sketch, Label, and Explain	3.7E, 3.7C	Module 1: “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraphs 1 and 2	25
Step 4	Make One Helpful Change	3.11C	Module 1: “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraphs 5 and 6	36
Step 5	Genre Snapshot: Teach Someone Something	3.12B	Module 1: “A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”, paragraphs 1 to 3	47

Four boundaries for every lesson

- Review, rather than introduce. Use skills, routines, and genre features the classroom teacher has already taught.
- Use separate practice work. Do not revise students' ongoing major compositions, reveal upcoming assessment prompts, or complete the module's culminating assignment.
- Give students one clear job. Each lesson has one task.
- Leave a clear stopping point. A substitute lesson does not mark a regular module lesson or GRADUATE stage as completed.

★ USE THIS FIRST. The classroom teacher designated this lesson for an unexpected absence. Its passage was taught in Module 1, so it is safe on any day of the cluster.

Today's lesson	Find It and Prove It (Step 1)
Time	15 minutes (the writing block). The separate 20-minute Standards Slide Deck block stays with the deck the teacher designated.
Passage	"A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community" (Module 1 version), paragraphs 1 and 2 only
Eligible	Any time after Module 1 has been taught. This is the safest choice for an unexpected absence.
Materials	Passage page, student response page, pencil. Optional: supported page and extension page.
Grouping	Whole class for reading and the model; partners for minutes 5 to 7; independent writing for minutes 7 to 12.
Students will	Answer one question and support the answer with one detail from the passage.
Collect	Each student's response page (and any supported or extension page). Place them in the folder with the Return-to-Teacher note.
TEKS practiced	• 3.7B Write a response to a literary or informational text that demonstrates an understanding of a text. • 3.7C Use text evidence to support an appropriate response. Focused practice only; one short lesson does not address every part of a standard.

USE TODAY'S PACKET

Pages are included in this folder

DO NOT ADVANCE

- Do not begin the next module lesson, a GRADUATE day, or the module's culminating assignment.
- Do not use any passage or paragraph outside paragraphs 1 and 2.
- Do not open or revise students' ongoing major compositions, and do not share upcoming assessment prompts.
- Do not mark any regular lesson or GRADUATE stage as completed.

Begin here: turn to the Teaching Script. Use today's packet (attached) for each student.

Teaching Script: Find It and Prove It

Practice focus: Written response and supporting evidence. Materials: passage page, response page, pencil. Read the words in quotation marks aloud exactly.

Minutes 0 to 3: Read together

SAY “Today we will practice answering a question and using the passage to support our answer. Follow along as I read.”

DO Read paragraphs 1 and 2 aloud. Stop at the STOP HERE line.

SAY “Our answers need to match what the passage tells us.”

Minutes 3 to 5: Model one example

SAY “My question is: What do people use water for? I will look for a detail.”

POINT Point to paragraph 2, the second sentence.

SAY “The passage says people need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals. Paragraph 2 gives me the detail I need.”

Minutes 5 to 7: Let partners try

SAY “Now work with your partner. What else can rivers provide? Find the sentence.”

EXPECT Paragraph 2: Rivers can also provide fish and create routes for transportation.

IF STUCK “Reread the third sentence of paragraph 2. What can rivers do besides give water?”

Minutes 7 to 12: Students respond independently

SAY

“Now answer this question: According to the passage, why is water important for communities? Write your answer and include a detail from the passage.”

FRAME

If the teacher assigned a frame: “Water is important for communities because _____. The passage says _____.”

IF STUCK

“Look at paragraph 2. What did the Nile River provide? What grew near it?”

Minutes 12 to 15: Check and collect

SAY

“Read your answer. Underline the detail you used.”

DO

Collect the response pages.

[1] Every community begins in a place. That place might be beside a river, near a forest, across a wide plain, or close to a harbor. The land may be green and fertile, dry and rocky, cold and snowy, or warm and sunny. Wherever people live, the geography around them creates both opportunities and challenges.

[2] Water is one of the first resources people need when deciding where to live. People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals. Rivers can also provide fish and create routes for transportation. Ancient Egypt is one example. Much of Egypt was surrounded by hot, dry desert, but the Nile River flowed through the land. Most ancient Egyptians settled near the Nile because the river provided resources that were difficult to find in the surrounding desert. For thousands of years, the Nile flooded nearby land. After the floodwaters went down, fertile soil remained. Farmers used the rich soil to grow wheat, barley, vegetables, flax, and other crops. The river also provided fish, drinking water, and a way to move people and goods. Instead of struggling across the hot desert, travelers could use boats on the Nile. Farmers, merchants, builders, and families all benefited from the river. Over time, villages and cities grew near the Nile. The Nile did not build those communities. People did. However, the river gave people resources they could use. This same pattern can be seen in many other places. Communities have often developed near rivers, lakes, springs, and coastlines because water makes many parts of daily life possible.

Answer and Support Guide

Find It and Prove It. According to the passage, why is water important for communities?

green = answer or reason

yellow = evidence from the passage

Acceptable response	Para.	Evidence in the passage
People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals.	2	“People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals.”
Rivers provide fish and routes for transportation.	2	“Rivers can also provide fish and create routes for transportation.”
The Nile gave Egyptians fertile soil for growing crops.	2	“After the floodwaters went down, fertile soil remained.”
Villages and cities grew near the Nile because of its resources.	2	“Over time, villages and cities grew near the Nile.”
Communities have often developed near water sources.	2	“Communities have often developed near rivers, lakes, springs, and coastlines because water makes many parts of daily life possible.”

SAMPLE RESPONSE

Water is important for communities because people need it for drinking, cooking, cleaning, and farming. The passage says, People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals.

WHY IT WORKS

The answer explains why water matters (using a specific reason from the passage) and includes a supporting detail. Accept different wording.

COMMON MISUNDERSTANDINGS

- Saying water is important without giving a specific reason from the passage.
- Adding facts about water not in today's paragraphs.
- Writing about paragraph 3 (not assigned today).

SUPPORTED ROUTE

Read only the first four sentences of paragraph 2. Use the word bank and the sentence frame.

EXTENSION

Find a second detail from paragraph 2 and explain which detail better answers the question.

Checking guidance: Accept different wording. Record which students needed prompting. Do not require students to copy the sample.

[illegible]

Answer and Support Guide

Say It in Your Own Words. Paraphrase paragraph 1 in your own words. Keep the same meaning and the same order.

green = answer or reason

yellow = evidence from the passage

Acceptable response	Para.	Evidence in the passage
Paraphrase A keeps the meaning (many types of places).	1	“That place might be beside a river, near a forest, across a wide plain, or close to a harbor.”
Part 1: all communities start in a location.	1	“Every community begins in a place.”
Part 2: the land can be many different things.	1	“The land may be green and fertile, dry and rocky, cold and snowy, or warm and sunny.”
Part 3: geography creates opportunities and challenges.	1	“Wherever people live, the geography around them creates both opportunities and challenges.”

SAMPLE RESPONSE

All communities start in a particular location. The land around them could be green, dry, cold, or warm. Where people live shapes the good chances and the problems they face.

WHY IT WORKS

The paraphrase keeps all ideas of paragraph 1 in the same order and uses different words.

COMMON MISUNDERSTANDINGS

- Copying the sentences word for word.
- Saying communities only start near rivers. The passage lists many types of places.
- Adding details from paragraph 2 or 3.

SUPPORTED ROUTE

Paraphrase only the first two sentences. Use the word bank and the frame.

EXTENSION

After your paraphrase, write one sentence explaining why it matters where a community begins.

Checking guidance: Accept different wording. Record which students needed prompting. Do not require students to copy the sample.

“A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”

Paragraph numbers match the Module 1 passage. Paragraphs before [5] were read in class earlier and are not needed today.

▼ START READING HERE ▼

[5] As communities grow, people need ways to move. The type of transportation they use often depends on geography and technology. Ancient Egyptians used boats on the Nile. People connected to Poverty Point traveled along waterways. The Pilgrims crossed the Atlantic Ocean by ship. Frontier families moved by wagon. Later, automobiles changed how quickly people could travel between towns and cities. Henry Ford did not invent the automobile, but his work helped make automobiles more affordable for many families. As cars became more common, communities built and improved roads. People could travel farther for work, shopping, school, and recreation. Transportation can change how communities connect. A river can become a trade route. A harbor can connect a settlement to distant places. A road can connect a small town to a larger city. New forms of transportation can make the distance between communities seem smaller.

[6] Where people live can also influence the jobs they do. Near the Nile, many people became farmers, fishermen, boat workers, merchants, or builders. In forested areas, people might work with timber. In farming communities, people may grow crops or raise animals. Near waterways, people may fish, trade, transport goods, or build boats. As technology changes, new kinds of work appear. A location does not decide a person's future, but geography can create opportunities that affect how a community develops. This helps explain why communities in different places often look and operate differently.

Answer and Support Guide

Make One Helpful Change. Revise the practice draft by adding one helpful detail from the passage.

green = answer or reason

yellow = evidence from the passage

Acceptable response	Para.	Evidence in the passage
Sentence 1: add examples of transportation (boats, wagons, automobiles).	5	“Ancient Egyptians used boats on the Nile. People connected to Poverty Point traveled along waterways. The Pilgrims crossed the Atlantic Ocean by ship. Frontier families moved by wagon.”
Sentence 1: add that Henry Ford made cars more affordable.	5	“Henry Ford did not invent the automobile, but his work helped make automobiles more affordable for many families.”
Sentence 2: add jobs near the Nile (farmers, fishermen, merchants).	6	“Near the Nile, many people became farmers, fishermen, boat workers, merchants, or builders.”
Sentence 2: add that people in forests worked with timber.	6	“In forested areas, people might work with timber.”
Sentence 3: add that geography creates opportunities.	6	“A location does not decide a person's future, but geography can create opportunities that affect how a community develops.”

SAMPLE RESPONSE

Geography affects the jobs people do because near the Nile, many people became farmers, fishermen, boat workers, merchants, or builders.

WHY IT WORKS

Each revision adds one relevant detail from paragraphs 5 or 6.

COMMON MISUNDERSTANDINGS

- Adding details from paragraphs 1 to 4 (not today's assigned paragraphs).
- Fixing only spelling.

SUPPORTED ROUTE

Use the detail cards. Choose one that fits sentence 2 or 3.

EXTENSION

Combine two sentences using because or so.

Checking guidance: Accept different wording. Record which students needed prompting. Do not require students to copy the sample.

Teaching Script: Genre Snapshot: Teach Someone Something

Practice focus: Writing a short informational piece using a clear thesis (central idea). Materials: passage page, response page, pencil. Read the words in quotation marks aloud exactly.

Minutes 0 to 3: Read together

SAY “Today you will write a short informational piece for a younger student. Follow along as I read.”

DO Read paragraphs 1 to 3 aloud.

Minutes 3 to 5: Model one example

SAY “My thesis (central idea) is: Geography matters because it gives communities the resources they need. Paragraph 2 says communities developed near water because it makes daily life possible.”

DO Write the thesis (central idea) and one detail on the board.

Minutes 5 to 7: Plan with a partner

SAY “With your partner, find one more detail about how geography helps.”

EXPECT Paragraph 3: forests provide wood, harbors provide access for ships, good soil supports farming.

IF STUCK “Reread paragraph 3. What resources did the Pilgrims find at Plymouth?”

Minutes 7 to 12: Students write independently

SAY “Write your informational piece. Start with your thesis (central idea). Add one or two details.”

FRAME If the teacher assigned a frame: “Geography matters for communities because _____. The passage says _____.”

IF STUCK “What is one resource that geography provides? Find it in paragraph 2 or 3.”

Minutes 12 to 15: Check and collect

SAY “Does your piece have a thesis (central idea) and a detail from the passage?”

DO Collect the pieces.

“A Place to Grow: How Geography Helps Build a Community”

▼ START READING HERE ▼

[1] Every community begins in a place. That place might be beside a river, near a forest, across a wide plain, or close to a harbor. The land may be green and fertile, dry and rocky, cold and snowy, or warm and sunny. Wherever people live, the geography around them creates both opportunities and challenges.

[2] Water is one of the first resources people need when deciding where to live. People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals. Rivers can also provide fish and create routes for transportation. Ancient Egypt is one example. Much of Egypt was surrounded by hot, dry desert, but the Nile River flowed through the land. Most ancient Egyptians settled near the Nile because the river provided resources that were difficult to find in the surrounding desert. For thousands of years, the Nile flooded nearby land. After the floodwaters went down, fertile soil remained. Farmers used the rich soil to grow wheat, barley, vegetables, flax, and other crops. The river also provided fish, drinking water, and a way to move people and goods. Instead of struggling across the hot desert, travelers could use boats on the Nile. Farmers, merchants, builders, and families all benefited from the river. Over time, villages and cities grew near the Nile. The Nile did not build those communities. People did. However, the river gave people resources they could use. This same pattern can be seen in many other places. Communities have often developed near rivers, lakes, springs, and coastlines because water makes many parts of daily life possible.

[3] Water is important, but communities need other resources too. People have often looked at the land around them and asked, What can we use? Forests can provide wood. Grasslands can provide space for grazing animals and growing certain crops. Rivers can provide water and transportation. Coastal areas can provide fish and access to waterways. Good soil can support farming. The Pilgrims who arrived in present-day Massachusetts in 1620 also had to think about their environment. After crossing the Atlantic Ocean on the Mayflower, they needed a place where they could establish their settlement. They eventually settled at Plymouth, an area within the homeland of the Wampanoag people and a place that had previously been home to the Patuxet people. The location offered resources the English settlers needed. Fresh water was nearby. Forests provided timber that could be used for shelters and fires. The harbor provided access for ships. Land that had previously been cleared could be used for planting. The settlers still faced enormous challenges, especially during their first winter, but geography affected the choices they made. The same idea can be seen on the American frontier many years later. Families such as the Ingalls family, whose experiences Laura Ingalls Wilder later described in her books, lived in several different environments. In forested areas, wood was available for building. On open grasslands, trees could be harder to find, so people sometimes used other materials. People adapted their homes, work, transportation, and daily routines to the environments in which they lived.

Answer and Support Guide

Genre Snapshot: Teach Someone Something. Teach a younger student why geography matters for communities, using details from the passage.

green = answer or reason

yellow = evidence from the passage

Acceptable response	Para.	Evidence in the passage
Water provides drinking, cooking, farming, and transportation.	2	“People need water for drinking, cooking, cleaning, farming, and caring for animals.”
Forests provide wood for building.	3	“Forests can provide wood.”
Good soil supports farming.	3	“Good soil can support farming.”
Communities develop near resources like rivers and coastlines.	2	“Communities have often developed near rivers, lakes, springs, and coastlines because water makes many parts of daily life possible.”

SAMPLE RESPONSE

Geography matters for communities because the land and water around them provide important resources. The passage says, Communities have often developed near rivers, lakes, springs, and coastlines because water makes many parts of daily life possible.

WHY IT WORKS

The piece has a thesis (central idea) and at least one detail from the passage.

COMMON MISUNDERSTANDINGS

- Writing about only one community instead of explaining why geography matters generally.
- Adding facts not in the passage.

SUPPORTED ROUTE

Use the word bank and the sentence frame. Write about one detail from paragraph 2 or 3.

EXTENSION

Add a second detail from a different paragraph and explain why both matter.

Checking guidance: Accept different wording. Record which students needed prompting. Do not require students to copy the sample.
